Your Child's Protection

Please know, that all staff members and volunteers who work with your youth are required to complete a "Child Protection Course" through the Diocese of Birmingham. Any parent or volunteer who is in direct contact with the youth must complete this course and have a background check. This is a safeguard for your child. We also require that when leaving a rehearsal or event the child is picked up by a parent or guardian. If you have an guardian or alternate adult who will pick up your child, you must notify either Mark Blackburn or Maria Roos.
